BRUNO LAFON

The expression of the diversity of our backgrounds and tastes.

Sharon, born in Zimbabwe, lived and made wine in South Africa; she was immediately seduced by the Languedoc and loves "savoury" wines - an untranslatable word in French that designates wines that are seductive, complex - and mellow tannins.

Alice, after a scientific university career in nanotechnology, decided to study pastry-making, before returning to her family roots: her tastes run to gourmet delights and precision in winemaking and blending.

After managing Domaine des Comtes Lafon in the 80s, Bruno had the opportunity to acquire a vineyard in the south of France, a stone's throw from Pézenas. He loves wines with character that are off the beaten track.
